Debossed

Debosssing is a process in which a metal die is created from artwork.
The die is then heat-pressed into the material, leaving an image of the artwork. This method is used on leather and other substrates.
Color may be added by placing foil between the material and the die and then heat pressing it onto the surface. A foil deboss allows the depression or indent to be highlighted creating an impressive logo that really stands out. Copper, Gold, Silver and Sparkle Foil Stamping only.

3D/4-COLOR PROCESS on select bags

This spectacular patented process allows for an infinite number of colors in perfect registration. It can be applied to a virtually unlimited range of surfaces: webbing, foam padding, insulated padding, PVC, nylon, neoprene, ABS and almost any substrate. The imprint is reproduced on the surface layer of the material. The Image Bonding® process results in superior imprint durability that will withstand the most rigorous of testing criteria.

Image Bonding®

U.S. Patent 6,793,688.
This spectacular patented process allows for up to three colors in perfect registration. It can be applied to a virtually unlimited range of surfaces: webbing, foam padding, insulated padding, PVC, nylon, neoprene, ABS and almost any substrate. The imprint is reproduced on the surface layer of the material. The Image Bonding® process results in superior imprint durability that will withstand the most rigorous of testing criteria. Prime Line® has won the PPAI Gold Award for Combination of Processes That Create a New Imprinting Process.

Silk Screened

Silk Screen printing is the direct imprinting of a design or copy onto the surface of a product. The image is pressed through tensioned nylon mesh, leaving a paint-like appearance. This is a clearer imprint than Pad Printing, though it requires a relatively flat surface without obstructions. Prime Line® has won the PPAI Gold Award for Screen-Printing on Surfaces Other Than Textiles.

VibraTec℠

Laser Engraved

Laser Engraving uses light to burn an image into the substrate. It gives your logo a clean and polished appearance. Laser Engraving is available on many of Prime's metal items and works best when the item's surface is a different color than the substrate. The imprint color may vary depending on the material substrate of each item. Laser Oxidation is available on items when the surface and the substrate are the same color. The imprint turns black with Oxidation.

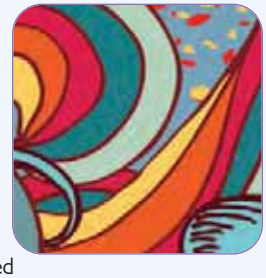
4-COLOR PROCESS Image Bonding®

This spectacular patented process allows for an infinite number of colors in perfect registration. It can be applied to a virtually unlimited range of surfaces: webbing, foam padding, insulated padding, PVC, nylon, neoprene, ABS and almost any substrate. The imprint is reproduced on the surface layer of the material. The Image Bonding® process results in superior imprint durability that will withstand the most rigorous of testing criteria.

Pad Printed

An inked image is transferred from a photo-etched plate to a thick, soft, silicone pad. The pad is then pressed against the part. The pad can wrap itself as much as 180° around a small object, and ink coverage is excellent. One color is printed at a time, and registration between colors is adequate for four-color process printing.

Transfer



An optional method replacing Silk Screen imprinting for detailed and multi-color imprints for a better appearance on certain substrates.
It can be applied to a virtually unlimited range of surfaces: webbing, foam padding, insulated padding, PVC, nylon, neoprene, ABS and almost any substrate. The imprint is reproduced on the surface layer of the material.

VibraTec℠ Plus for select drinkware
